Office Referral & Consequences

1. If you are asked to leave the classroom. You need to leave without further interruption and go directly to the guidance office. The guidance secretary will direct you to either, have a seat and wait for administration or go to ALR (Alternative Learning Room).
2. If you are sent to ALR. You are to sign in, be seated and follow the instructions of ALR supervisor(s). You may be asked to work on schoolwork, write an apology letter, create a plan to improve your behavior, or be assigned community service work around the school. You are responsible for any work missed during the time you were sent out of class.
3. If you are referred to administration for inappropriate behavior the administrator will meet with you to gather information. Staff and other students may be interviewed and consequences will be determined.
4. Consequences may include, but are not limited to: ALR for 1 period up to multiple days, call home, detention, suspension, evening skills classes (attended with a parent) or Saturday school (4 hours/all or part attended with a parent).
